Additional Notes on Contributions

Federally-chartered financial institutions, including national banks and federally chartered thrifts, are prohibited from making corporate contributions to political action committees and to candidates for public office in connection with any U.S. election - federal, state or local.

Contributions will be used to support federal, state and local candidates. Therefore, contributions are subject to the prohibitions and limitations of the Federal Election Campaign Act and the State of Maryland Candidacy & Campaign Finance Laws. Federal and State laws require us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and employer of individuals whose federal contributions exceed $200.00 in a calendar year and state contributions of any amount.
